A. Livingston now practically controls the wholesale liquor trade of the city. He is continually adding to his stock and sells only standard brands. He is also introducing some excellent California wines to the people of Carson, as well as foreign and domestic cigars of the finest quality. Drop in and inspect his stock. d 13 tf

Sandrock and Millard, practical plumbers and gasfitters, have opened a shop in Dick Mills' old stand South Carson St., and propose to do all work in their line at prices so low that you don't have to mortgage your property to pay them. Stoves and ranges and all kinds of tinware on hand, at very reasonable rates. Razors and scissors sharpened. j31tf.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.

Yesterday's stage to Pine Nut took three passengers.

Catfish a foot long are being caught in Wah-hoe Lake now.

An extra blanket on one's bed is not out of place just about now.

Blaine is the choice of Pennsylvania Republicans in convention.

Rey Del Rey won $13,000 at Morris Park, N. Y., on Tuesday.

Jim Hope of Empire is improving his saloon by the application of a new roof.

The roof on the Agricultural Association Pavilion is now nearly complete.

Did anyone see such delightful weather as Nevada is having now. No more sun strokes and no mosquitoes.

George Merston, for a number of years a night watchman at Reno, died Sunday. Deceased was 52 years of age and a native of Kentucky.

News came from Pine Nut yesterday that Hunnycut and Bigler had struck a rich streak of black sulphurets in their claim. It is said to be as rich as Zinn's.

When Tracy Chedic sends the APPEAL a nice big watermelon, as he did last night, the composers spend so much time enjoying it that the paper don't get out till after sunset.

John Wagner is the largest individual taxpayer in Ormsby county. He pays taxes on $26,000 worth of property. Oleovich Brothers pay on $24,000, and John G. Fox on $20,000.

On Sunday evening Mrs. W. D. Cottrell found her two-year-old son senseless on the ground. He was soon brought to consciousness. It was supposed he fell down the steps of the porch.

There was considerable sport yesterday because an old fellow who is accustomed to "sniping snipes" attempted to lift the butt of a cigar from the sidewalk which had a string and small boy attached to it. If Doc bought his cigars of Irwin he would never be fooled.

The State Agricultural Society have had the Pavilion newly painted inside and out and it now presents a very creditable appearance, and the exhibits display at the coming State Fair will show off so much better than heretofore. Company C, which leases the Pavilion, will give a grand fan party on Friday evening, August 28th. It will be a new and novel affair, and the fact that it is to be given by the military boys insures it to be a social success.

Every few days a copy of some eastern paper comes to us with a big blue pencil mark encircling an address by a Mr. Richardson. The Alameda Enclinal is becoming weary of this and remarks as follows:

"If Mr. Frank A. Richardson—a New York advertising agent, and a bright one at that—wants to do 'business' with the Enclinal, he had better send us his proposal in writing. We are 'dired' of looking at the marked copies of papers sent us from St. Paul, Chicago, New York, Boston, etc. Let us know what you want, and we will intelligently answer. Free advertising with us is 'ausgaspielled.'"

Arrant Nonsense.

It makes all the difference in the world which ox is gored. Because the farmers are advised to hold their crops in order to get the benefit of higher prices, newspapers representing interests which have fattened at the farmers' expense are shouting "trust." This is arrant nonsense. The farmer has been the under dog in the financial fight quite long enough, and if he can make a little money this year by holding on to his crop for awhile, for heavens' sake, let him do it in peace.

A QUEER MISTAKE.

Married on a Stud Horse Poker License.

Last week at Pizen Switch, a queer case came before the Court. John Malandry was on trial for assault and battery, his offense consisting of having beaten in the face of a man named Trumbo, for having stated that Malandry was not married to his wife. When the case was tried Malandry produced his marriage license which was dated about four years ago, and handed it to the Court for inspection. The Court read it over through a large pair of silver rimmed spectacles and remarked:

"Do you consider this a marriage license?"

"I do sir."

"Where did you get it?"

"I got it of you several years ago."

"Did you get married on the strength of it?"

"I did sir."

"Can you read?"

"No sir."

"I am sorry to inform you" said the Court "that this is not a marriage license at all, but a license to run a stud horse poker game for three months in Pizen Switch."

Malandry was very much disconcerted and the spectators burst into a loud laugh. When the matter was investigated it transpired that Malandry had applied to the Justice of Pizen Switch for a license to open a stud horse poker game and said he would want it soon.

The Justice made out the license and a few weeks later Malandry decided to marry, but his bride insisted that he give up gambling and take to agriculture.

The happy groom then sent his brother to get the license and the Justice supposed of course that he wanted the gaming license and gave it after charging the usual fee. The preacher was a trifle hilarious when the ceremony was performed so did not critically inspect the document.

Thus it happened that the error was not discovered until the battery case came up in Court. The Justice made all the amends he could by issuing another marriage license free of charge and the boys gave the newly-wedded couple another chivaree.

A Feminine Satirist.

Gertrude Atherton, the feminine Bierce, now contributes weekly to the San Francisco Examiner. Her articles are as original and forcible in thought and diction, as biting and at the same time revealing as deep a knowledge of human nature and its hypocrisies, as are the weekly "expressions of individual opinion" by satirist Bierce in the columns of the same paper. The letters of these two writers are the best features of the Sunday Examiner.—Grass Valley Tidings.

Mrs. Atherton handles a keen pen and her strictures on her own sex rouse a storm of feminine wrath whenever they appear, all of which proves them to be true. She has the courage of her opinions and her recent letters on divorces will set a good many thinking. The thoughtful will think and the thoughtless will scoff. She is writing truth all the same.

Mines of Reputation.

A correspondent wants to know what mine in the world has paid the most dividends, and what mining stock has shown the largest advance in price. The present Con. Cal. & Va. of Nevada, including dividends paid by both mines before their consolidation, has paid the most, the total being $74,982,800. The greatest advance made in the price of a stock was in the Himmelfahrt mine of Freiburg; advanced from 25 cents to $11,000 per share. In proportion to capitalization the Mount Bischoff of Tasmania, has paid the most dividends. Its capitalization is $60,000 and it has paid $7,500,000 in dividends, and still keeps up.—Enterprise.

The next pigeon shoot will take place Sept 5, and a costly medal is to be the trophy. Pool shooting will also be a feature, so get your right eye (Frank Bryant left) in condition to tumble a bird every shot.

Can This Be True?

Yesterday a News reporter was informed that Mr. Dick Brown of the Mint, is in the near future going to tender his resignation, to accept the position as Superintendent of the carpenter school at the University.

The above clipping is from the Carson News and has reference to a former citizen of Elko. If it be true, it is but another proof that favoritism rules the present Board of Regents in dealing with the State University. Mr. Brown while a resident of Elko ranked with the carpenters of the town as a wood butcher of the third class. His work in hanging the blinds in our school building instead of winning him the position of Superintendent of the University carpenter school where he will have the training of the boys in the intricacies of that trade, would consign him to the foot of the class.

Mr. Regents, if you must have a carpenter school at the State University, why don't you put it in charge of a competent man? Don't you think that too much favoritism at the expense of the welfare of the University will tend to kill the Institution in the eyes of the people of the State? Stop your monkey business and get competent men to run the University.—Elko Independent.

For the Orphans.

Out of several hundred people who contributed to the Pratt fund only two have demanded their money back after learning that the lady refused the money.

They had given 35 and 20 cents respectively. The suggestion that the fund go to the children of the Orphans' Home for Christmas seems to meet with general favor and if nothing better is suggested by the end of the week it will be turned over to that institution.

Sickness Among Children.

Especially infants, is prevalent more or less at all times, but is largely avoided by giving proper nourishment and wholesome food. The most successful and reliable of all is the Gail Borden "Eagle" Brand Condensed Milk. Your grocer and druggist keep it. 2c

The American Agriculturist estimates that the big crops of the United States for this year at probable prices will be worth $1,000,000,000 more than the average of the last eleven years. This is about equivalent to 17 per cent. advance on the entire annual income including all industries. It means prosperity not only for the farmers but for the community. It will soon bring back the gold shipped to Europe during the last few months with more to follow it.
